

Amelia Solomao

Mobile: 076 328 9734

Email: ameliasolomao@gmail.com

PROFILE:

Dedicated and aspiring Electrical Engineer with a passion for creating innovative solutions to drive societal progress. Currently pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering at the University of the Witwatersrand, with demonstrated skills in problem-solving, analytical thinking, and teamwork. Proactive and goal-driven, with a strong commitment to academic and personal growth, as well as contributing meaningfully to South Africa's engineering sector. Passionate about community development, sustainability, and applying engineering knowledge to create impactful initiatives

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering

University of the Witwatersrand

Year of Study : 3

- Tshukudu High School

University of the Witwatersrand

Achieved Bachelor (A) Status

SKILLS:

- Technical Skills– Proficient in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint);
 - Competence in MATLAB and C++ programming; basic circuit simulation knowledge
 - Familiar with digitalization, automation, and control systems
 - Analytical Skills – Strong critical thinking and problem-solving abilities
 - Communication– Clear and effective communicator
 - Interpersonal Skills – Reliable team player with excellent collaboration and punctuality
-

INTERESTS:

- Energy innovation, sustainability, and renewable power systems
 - Software development, web technologies, and data-driven solutions
 - Automation and digital innovation in engineering systems
 - Problem-solving through programming and system design
 - Community development and youth empowerment
-

Experience & Achievements:

- Successfully completed multiple group projects at university, demonstrating teamwork and persistence
- Active participant in community engagement initiatives, showing commitment to social responsibility
- Maintained steady academic progress while balancing extracurricular activities